

John Leckrone magnum opus

Part 2

(Source: <https://www.facebook.com/john.leckrone.16/posts/945885429187284>)

There are a lot of things I did not discuss in part one before I posted it. The ink in my paperwork is purple and my autograph is done in red. The purple ink is symbolic of royalty aka sovereignty and the red ink is of course symbolic for blood. All paperwork done in black ink is symbolic of death.

The background which may not be clear is this. I had my properties stolen in Michigan several years ago. In round 1 many years ago a couple of attorneys for the bankers turned in fraudulent paperwork. When I saw there was not going to be a jury and that I was not going to be able to record the fraud on video me and my son left and did not participate in the fraud of the kangaroo court. I knew I would be back in the future. I was only just starting my journey of learning about these kangaroo courts and I knew I was not ready. I did go back a few weeks later and saw the look of fear in one of the attorney's eyes when he was being released as the executor of the estate when I held him accountable. If I had known more I would have put him in jail or held him liable back then. It was so beautiful. It was at that point I knew I was onto the scam in a very big way. As I said before, everything comes full circle. These are the people who pushed me on the journey that has helped all of us to learn the truth of this slave system. Be sure to make a hard copy!

Those attorneys were John M. Grogan and James R. Modrall. They work in the same building and I assume the same office and were hired by Honor Bank to pillage the estate. James R. Modrall was appointed as the Executor by the agent for Honor Bank. Can one really expect justice when the "fix is in"? I knew better. The man in the black robe then and now is Thomas N. Brunner. In short these men were there at the start of my journey into the cesspool of legalese and the fraud of these kangaroo courts. I will not explain the mountains of evidence I have against the bank and these attorneys but let us just say that my paperwork which you are reading has not been replied to by either of these attorneys and Thomas N. Brunner is not wanting to give me my grand jury and is begging us to settle this on the private side. He knows I am committed and this pandoras box if it is opened will send a ripple effect across the country.

In round 2 it was property tax related with different properties. I was smarter then but since I did not mail any paperwork with the court they would not let me speak until the fix was in. A different black robe allowed me to file my claims into the case "after the fact" which is what I discuss in these papers as well. None of the attorneys or either tax collector are showing up or responding to my paperwork. As all of you should already know, silence is consent.

Now what happened is the man Patrick Looney who I know opened a case in an effort to become the executor for the estate so that he can steal a property still in my deceased mothers name. When my brother called to tell me I busted out laughing as I knew that this was going to be my opportunity to complicate the lives of a lot of criminals with BAR cards and government contracts.

The paperwork I was sent which will be discussed in my next magnum opus #3 that has not been written yet is fraudulent as well. I gave Patrick an extremely valuable property worth hundreds of thousands of dollars because it needed a lot of work and I knew I would not be able to afford to fix it. He did not pay the taxes on it and it burned later. He called me and told me to "get my stuff out" of my building which is the subject matter and the real property in play here a few years ago. I informed him to stay out of my property because he did not want to be a part of what I am doing. He ignored my advice and you can read about that in my paperwork here. I charge him with two felonies.

I hope this helps to clear up the background story. We had a case yesterday, the 22nd of June 2020 and Patrick did not even bother to show up. His attorney said that he failed to notify Pat about the meeting. Thomas again asked us to "work it out" because he does not want to open my mothers estate. Needless to say you know where I stand on the issue. The whole reason I learned all this crap is for what I am doing right now! I intend to completely expose this criminal enterprise and they cannot match my "filed under the pains and penalties of perjury". No one has responded to these magnum opus papers in any way because they cannot.

This is of course public, judicial and constructive notice.

Public, judicial and constructive notice of facts and claims for File No. 14-000239-DE at Manistee County Probate Court, the physical location, not the corporation via video conferencing using zoom.

The honorable John McCotter Leckrone, acting as the claimant, executor and beneficiary, a living man with status and standing on the land and not lost at sea or dead continues to retain all unalienable rights and waives none whether statutory or procedural or for any reason whatsoever. All presumptions without evidence are rebutted and claimant again establishes his common law court of record article three court where the magistrate trustee is separate from the tribunal and all actions involve only men and women under oath or affirmation of facts filed under the pains and penalties of perjury. Claimant assumes his legitimate role as the sole representative for the estate of Karen Faye Leckrone, now deceased and by extension the estate of her husband, John Kirk Leckrone, claimants father which she had inherited before her death upon his death. This is claimants right by right of survivorship and evidence and claimants mothers original will on the public record in Manistee County and filed into a previous case.

All previous claims filed under the pains and penalties of perjury into this court of record by claimant remain unchallenged and unrebutted by John M. Grogan, James R. Modrall, Patrick Looney and his attorney Mark Quinn thus those claims stand as truth in commerce, equity and in the common law. Claimant again reminds all other parties that this is a replevin action as well as a trover action for the return of all of claimants real and personal and proprietary property unlawfully converted by various third parties to include the defendant Patrick Looney.

The origin of this controversy has its roots in corporations masquerading as legitimate governments and BAR attorney's using legalese, fraudulent conveyance of language, private acts, deceptive trade practices and banking fraud to pillage and plunder people for profit. Claimant fully comprehends the nature of this criminal system but does not understand it.

The claimant filed his claims on this matter and real property and other real properties into the record several years ago and those claims stand unrebutted to this day by the local taxing agents and other parties with BAR cards. These tax tribunals pretend to be courts of justice but are instead simply a scheme using procedures without fairness or moral rightness. Note 18 U.S. Code chapter 63 to which they, but not the claimant, are a party to.

Claimant has reviewed the paperwork submitted by Patrick Looney through his attorney Mark Quinn. The claimant will accept and permit these documents to be entered into the record as exhibits under the following conditions. This is known as conditional acceptance.

1. It is noted that none of these documents are entered into this action under the pains and penalties of perjury by Mark Quinn or Patrick Looney, the men, not the corporation PERSONS thus their value as evidence is limited. It is also noted that there has been no verification of debt disclosure statements filed into the record in this matter regarding a true bill by defendant Patrick Looney. It is also noted that no debt collector may use false, deceptive or misleading representations. Additionally no true bill has been filed into the record either in this cause of action or any other real property related actions by agents of a taxing tribunal or by any attorney previously employed by Honor Bank.

2. It is to be known and understood that claimant is not a party to the original land contract and did his very best to ensure it's execution to the best of his ability to the point of almost having it completely paid off evidenced by documents filed by the defendant Patrick Looney and referred to by Paula Joiner.

3. It is duly noted that the woman Paula Joiner never exercised any of her rights to bring a claim against the estate or against claimant or to accelerate the note. These documents were never executed by Paula thus they are void other than as exhibits. Also note that Paula Joiner is not named on the property deed of record in exhibit A. It is also noted that there has been no public notice of execution put on file into this case and claimant suspects there has been none put into the public record. This is of course a requirement for a valid deed transfer for a breach of contract claim.

4. It is recognized and understood that a quit claim deed is simply a deed claiming no interest in any property whether valid or not and thus it is not relevant to actual real property. It is the weakest form of a deed transfer and cannot trump a valid deed titled in claimants mothers name which is of course a trust.

4. Patrick Looney's use of $500 of Federal Reserve Negotiable Debt Instruments evidenced by the document dated March 21, 2017 is merely an investment to purchase Paula Joiner's rights.

Those right's did not include criminal trespassing and are limited to the amount on the non exercised forfeiture notice which was not filed into any court record prior to this one in the amount of $2000.08 plus a reasonable interest rate at 5% compounded yearly. Patrick is only now exercising his right to file the claim on a document dated 1 May 2020 and mailed to claimant over 3 years later.

5. Any man or woman claiming taxes are owed, which claimant refers to as extortion fees imposed on corporate tax slaves, must present a valid contract with full disclosure, mutual consideration, a meeting of the minds and two wet ink signatures signed by claimants father John and mother Karen showing their consent to be pillaged as well as a true bill. This evidence is to be filed under the pains and penalties of perjury that a lawful debt was owed and in the exact amounts claimed by the Manistee County Treasurer in this action. If no man or woman will come forward to do this then the past payments of taxes for this and several other real properties will be considered to be frivolous and money and interest and penalties are to be paid back to the estate to be passed through to the claimant for decades of the plundering of claimants parents estate.

Be aware that claimant has more than enough evidence produced by the past and present Manistee County Treasurer to prove the fraud. These documents were distributed via the mail by various Manistee County Treasurer's and very clearly show the fraudulent nature of the scam by using word art, the color of language and the color of law to fraudulently contract for the theft of real property. This is a form of deceptive trade practices for the purpose of peonage. Additionally all tax payments made by Patrick Looney and Melinda Pokorzynski are to be returned to them with regards to this real property. While claimant is not a party to the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act the past and present Manistee County Treasurer's have been and still are even now subject to it. See Pub. L. 95-109; 91 Stat. 874, codified as 15 U.S.C. § 1692.

6. That claimant clearly retained his right's visible on one of the documents filed into the record. See the handwritten notes "UCC 1-308 no prejudice" next to claimant's autograph on the document filed by the defendant's attorney Mark Quinn of the return receipt evidence of mailing.

7. The assignment of interest in the land contract of 30 March 2017 has only now been brought to the attention of claimant in May of 2020 and claimant was not given any opportunity to cure prior to this. Claimant is prepared to cure any valid debt at this time in order to stay in honor and to resolve this issue and controversy so that he may again take lawful possession of his real property. Only the claimant has presented his claims and done so with the strongest forms of evidence to include his claims filed under the pains and penalties of perjury as well as using the very same evidence provided by the original moving party, the defendant Patrick Looney.

It is noted that the defendant Patrick Looney took adverse possession of claimants real and personal property. Patrick Looney was informed to keep off of the real property and to leave his personal property alone. Patrick Looney made the willful decision to ignore claimants advice and thus criminally trespassed on claimants property for the purpose of taking possession. This can be construed as an act of theft and an act of war initiated by the defendant Patrick Looney.

The contents of the building had significant value, both monetary and otherwise, and were the private property of the claimant. Items included a service for 12 of fine china still in factory sealed packages to include serving pieces being stored in the attic. These were wedding gifts to the claimant's parents in the 1960's. Other items included antiques, furniture, showcases both antique and modern, fine European art, antique Oddfellow's headgear and weapons and other gear, clocks and clock parts, military surplus items, tools, books, artwork done by claimant's uncle, items belonging to claimant's father and so much more were stored in the building. The value of these items easily exceeded the value of the real property of the land and the building storing it. It is common knowledge that stealing and trespassing are wrong to which the defendant Patrick Looney does not seem to care. This is of course an act of willful and wanton disregard and is a form of gross negligence.

Mark Quinn, the attorney for the defendant Patrick Looney, has concurred that his initial move is a salvage claim for the property. It is well known that those making a claim for salvage rights that the parties making the claim must use due care to protect the property of the true owners of the property and those creating a salvage lien are not entitled to more than a fee for the salvage. No one is entitled to more than that in maritime admiralty courts, courts of equity or in common law courts of record. The common law courts of record are supposed to be mirrored by all of the other courts mentioned above but rarely do. These acts of greed by the defendant Patrick Looney through his attorney Mark Quinn are a direct reflection of the defendant's poor character and lack of a moral compass.

The entirety of this theft, criminal trespassing and custodial interference and controversy is the result of men and women with BAR card union dues cards and employees of corporations masquerading as governments as agents using tax fraud, peonage and press ganging. At no time has anyone sworn or affirmed under the pains and penalties of perjury that a single debt was owed by either of claimant's parents or the claimant. Evidence of a debt is not proof of a debt or that a debt is even owed. No one has presented a single shred of evidence of a public notice to claimant in the form of a certified letter or otherwise published true bill.

Claimant has and continues to make a good faith effort to expose the nature of this slave system tax farm. All edicts by agents of corporations masquerading as government are fiat, Latin for "Let it be done." and these dictates by politicians and bureaucrats are enforced through the use of deception and force. It is a contempt of court to ignore irrefutable evidence and promote criminality and deny real justice to those with lawful claims standing in honor and for justice.

To be ignorant of the law is no excuse. The pathetically simple concept of law is simply to do no harm. Claimant has consistently sought after justice and found none in the maritime admiralty constructive contract and racketeering fraud kangaroo courts. Claimant has been harmed and injured again and again as others trespass on claimant's unalienable rights and steal or attempt to steal his real and personal property using fraud and other unlawful means.

Claimant is entitled to set off and recoupment from the trespasser and thief Patrick Looney regarding this matter as well as punitive damages from the defendant for his unlawful actions.

The claimant intends to hold numerous other people and the corporations they work for accountable for their crimes as well with regards to the pillaging of his parents estate. This is a conspiracy of such magnitude and depravity as to point to a past, present and future dystopian society that is not acceptable to the claimant under any circumstances.

As always truth is a defense to defamation to include slander, that which is spoken, and libel, that which is written or published.

The facts presented here and in the other previously filed claims are true to the best of claimants knowledge and belief and are based on all available evidence, due diligence, years of exhaustive research, extensive peer review, available public records and the natural law concept of do no harm. We are to love our neighbors and seek after peace, justice and cooperation. Men and women have unalienable rights to property not owned by other men and women. Corporations and their agents only have duties and responsibilities as trustees and these corporations agents regularly abuse this position. Claimant expects and is entitled to remedy, cure and relief. These facts are filed by John, acting as the claimant, under the pains and penalties of perjury. May peace and justice prevail against slavery, tyranny and corruption in this dystopian society.
